The Daily Gazetteer.

NUMB. 3243

MONDAY, JULY 30, 1744.

Since our last arrived a Mail from Holland.

Madrid, July 14.

OUR Court have receiv'd Letters from the Havanna of the 6th of May, with Advice, that they were very busy in fitting out a new Man of War of 60 Guns; and as soon as that shall be ready, Admiral Torrel will sail with his Squadron, which will then consist of twelve Ships of the Line.

Vienna, July 22. Count Dohna, Minister of Prussia, lately a private Audience of the Queen at Schonbrun; and deliver'd a Letter from the King, with which Majesty seemed highly pleased.

Frankfort, July 30. The last Letters from Strasburgh advise, that they were preparing the Palace of the Cardinal du Rohan there, for the Reception of the King of France, whom they expected the 15th of this Month.

Brussels, August 3. This Morning a Courier, dispatch'd from Haguenau on the 30th past, brought the agreeable News, that Prince Charles having made the necessary Dispositions, and on the March to attack that Post, and force the Passage of la Motera, the Enemy abandon'd Haguenau, Drussenheim, their Lines and Retrenchments, retiring with Precipitation towards Strasburgh. Colonel Trenk enter'd Haguenau on the 29th, where the general Quarters of our Army are at present. Our light Troops very much harrass'd the Rear of the Enemy; and among other Prisoners, have brought in one of Count Seckendorff's Aid du Camps. The Army of the Queen are preparing to pursue the Enemy. Fort Louis is closely block'd up by one of our Detachments, that nothing has been able to enter that Place since the 20th past, when four small Barks got in by favour of the high Waters.

The Hague, August 4. The last Letters from the Army of the Allies advise, that they were encamp'd between Petersem and Moreghem; that on the 2d of August Orders were given to march the next Day, at Four in the Morning, to Bossut and Helchin, which is only three Leagues from the present Camp. We shall soon learn the Disposition which M. de Saxe will make; who, 'tis presumed, will turn back to Lisle, to cover, on that Side, the Frontiers of France. Lieutenant-General Smissaert hath join'd the Army with four of the Regiments that came back from England; that of Eckvan Panhoa remaining at Ostend, and that of Molert at Ghent. The Garison of Aeth is likewise come to the Army, where they expect to be join'd with other Troops. The Dutch Forces actually consist of 27 Battalions, and 44 Squadrons; the whole Army amounts to more than 60,000 Men, all fine Troops, and full of Spirits. 'Tis added, that a perfect Harmony subsists between the Generals and Officers of the Army, which promises great Success. The Prince and Princess of Orange are expected here this Day, or To-morrow; and their Royal and Serene Highnesses purpose to be at Loo the Week following.

The Society having received from one of their Members in the County of Wexford, a particular Account of their Manner of making Gooseberry Vinegar in that Country, where they make it yearly in great Quantities, and find it by Experience, as good as any White-wine Vinegar, and answers as well in pickling Cucumbers, Mushrooms, and all other Uses in which White-wine Vinegar is employed; they think it will be of Use to communicate the same to the Publick.

The Receipt for making Gooseberry Vinegar, is as follows.

'To every Gallon of cold Water put six Pounds of ripe Gooseberries, bruize them in a Mortar with a wooden Pestle, then pour the Water on them, and stir them, then put them into a Rundlet, or other clean Vessel; let the Vessel stand in a warm Place near a Kitchen Fire, or in the Sun, if hot, till the Liquor ferments, and the Fruit all rise to the Top, which it will do in about a Fortnight; then draw off the Liquor, and strain the Berries from it very clean, and put the Liquor into the same Cask; and to every Gallon of it one Pound of brown Sugar, which will make it ferment a second Time; and when you see it hath done working stop the Vessel close. It will be fit for Use in six Months, but it must be kept in a warm Place near a Fire, which will add to the Goodness, and ripen it the sooner. Note, That crystal Gooseberries are the best, and give it the best Colour, but any Gooseberries will make it good for common Uses; but be sure to use none for Pickles but that made of crystal Gooseberries.'

HOME PORTS.

Portsmouth, July 27. Yesterday Evening came to Spithead the Haarlem Dutch Man of War, Admiral Hendrick Grafer and the Beckerlett, Capt. 'She took her two Days ago, after a very long Chace, the Frenchman having thrown all his Guns over-board, in order to make his Escape. The Dover Privateer, when in the Bay, was every Day chaced by French Men of War, but always out-sail'd them; and on the 9th Inst. in Lat. 48: 30: Thirty Leagues West of Ushant, fell in with the Brest Fleet, consisting of 13 Sail, one of them a Flag, so tack'd, and stood from them. The same Afternoon she saw a Sail to the Northward, to which they gave Chace; and at six in the Evening came up with her; she proved to be a French Man of War of 20 Guns, with which they engaged for two Hours within Pistol-shot; at last the Frenchman attempted to board him, but at that Instant the Dover gave him his whole Broadside, with double Round and Partridge, &c. which flagger'd the Frenchman so much, that he immediately hoisted all the Sail he could, and crowded from her. Captain Grovener's Rigging and Sails being very much shatter'd, he could not make Way after her, so that she got clear off.'

On Saturday Morning was found in the Area of the House of William Granger, in Leicester Fields, in the Parish of St. Martin in the Fields, a Letter in the following Words; viz.

'William Granger

'This comes to let you know that if you do not pull 'down your Signe and Leave of periwig making before 'the first Day of August next Wee will do it for you 'and murder you where ever We see you at a conve-'nient Opportunity. I am one of a hundred that has 'signed this July 26 1744.'

This being represented to the King, his Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing or sending the above Letter, has been pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, except the Person who wrote the said Letter. And as a further Encouragement to such Discovery, a Reward of 20 l. will be paid to any Person, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, upon Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, by the said William Granger.

Extract of a Letter from Whitby, July 24.

'The Two Brothers belonging to this Place, a Pink 'of three Guns, five Men, and as many Boys, Capt. Jonas 'Brown, Commander, in her Passage to Estineur with 'Coals, was attacked on the 17th Inst. about 35 Leagues 'E. N. E. from Tinmouth Haven, by a French Snow 'Privateer of six Carriage Guns, several Swivels, and '50 Men; but, after meeting with a gallant Resistance, 'the Privateer, being much damag'd both in her Hull 'and Rigging, steer'd off with the utmost Precipitation; 'and Capt. Brown chaced her about half an Hour, continuing to fire at her as long as she was within Gunshot; but she had the Heels of him, altho' he had 'shot away her Main Top Sail Halliards. None of 'Capt. Brown's Company were hurt; and all the Damage they received, was the breaking the Axletree of 'one of their Carriages, occasioned by over-loading the 'Gun, to give the Privateer a Farewel Bounce, when 'she steer'd off. There was a Square-sterned Snow in 'Company with the Privateer, which Capt. Brown supposed to be a Prize, to which he gave Chace, but could 'not come up with her.

'There has not one Ship belonging to this Place 'been taken since the Commencement of the War, '(tho' the News Writers have thought fit to take several from us) for our large Ships are so well fitted for Defence, carrying from 6 to 16 Carriage Guns, and are 'so well provided with small Arms, and close Quarters; 'that no Privateers have dared to attack them; and our 'smaller Vessels generally go under their Convoy.'

At Ruckholt-House, in Essex, this Day, will be a grand Concert of Musick, and several Concertos and Solos on the Violin, by the famous Mr. Knerler; to which will be added, a new Song by Signiora Avolio, made to the favourite Musette in the Amorous Goddess, and several Concertos on the German-Flute, by Mr. Burk Thumoth.
